TONIGHT'S MATCH: The Portland Timbers embark on their second road trip of the season to face the expansion Cleveland City Stars tonight at Middlefield Cheese Stadium. Tonight marks the first-ever meeting between the two clubs.

R. Pore

PORE'S GOAL, ASSIST LEAD TIMBERS TO WIN OVER CAROLINA:

Midfielder Ryan Pore recorded a goal and an assist to lead the Portland Timbers to a 2-0 victory over the Carolina RailHawks in front of 6,742 on May 2, at PGE Park. Pore's three-point performance guided Portland to its first win of the 2009 season and the team's first victory over the RailHawks since 2007. Midfielder Brian Farber scored his first goal of the season in the first half and goalkeeper Chris Seitz logged nine saves to help the Timbers hand the RailHawks their first loss of the season. Seitz, on loan from Real Salt Lake, held Carolina scoreless for its second straight game. The Timbers jumped out to an early lead on Farber's goal in the fifth minute on a pin-point cross by Pore. In the 83rd minute, Pore delivered his first strike of the season off a feed from forward George Josten. Pore dialed up a low 20-yard shot from the top right corner of the box that found the back of the net.

A FAMILIAR FACE: When the Timbers take the field tonight, they will play against former assistant coach Rod Underwood, who is now the head coach of the City Stars. Underwood was an assistant under Timbers head coach Gavin Wilkinson for the past two seasons (2007-08) before being named Cleveland's first USL First Division head coach on February 5.

WELCOME ABOARD: The City Stars are one of two expansion clubs, along with the Austin Aztex, entering the USL First Division in 2009. The Timbers last played expansion franchises in 2007, and assembled a combined 6-0-1 record against the RailHawks and California Victory that season. Since 2004, the Timbers are 11-2-1 against expansion teams during their first year in the league; those teams include, Edmonton (2004); Puerto Rico (2004); Miami (2006); Carolina (2007); California (2007).

WHAT'S NEXT? The Timbers return home to face the Rochester Rhinos at PGE Park on Thursday, May 14, live on Fox Soccer Channel. Kickoff is slated for 8 p.m. (Pacific). Tickets start at $11 and are available through the PGE Park box office, area Ticketmaster locations, online at www.ticketmaster.com or by phone at (800) 745-3000.

The Timbers and City Stars begin their three-match season series tonight at Middlefield Cheese Stadium. The final two games of the series will take place in Portland in September.

ABOUT PORTLAND TIMBERS

The Portland Timbers hit the road for the second time this season for a trip to face the Cleveland City Stars. Tonight marks the first-ever meeting between the two clubs and the first of three scheduled regular-season meetings in 2009.

The Timbers are coming off a two-game series against the Carolina RailHawks last week in which they captured four points with a win and a draw (0-0) and logged a pair of shutouts. Midfielders Ryan Pore and Brian Farber each tallied their first goals of the season against Carolina in a 2-0 win on May 2 at PGE Park. Both Farber and Pore were named to the USL First Division Team of the Week for Week 4.

After missing the two previous games against Carolina due to injury, goalkeeper Steve Cronin is expected to return to action tonight in Cleveland. He returned to the training field on Tuesday and participated in a full training session Thursday. Cronin sustained a mild ankle injury on April 29 during training at PGE Park.

While the Timbers' offense has taken the spotlight over the past two games, with two goals and 22 shots taken, the team's defense has recorded consecutive shutouts in their last two matches. In total, the Timbers have conceded only one goal through their first three games of the 2009 season - a second-half strike by the Vancouver Whitecaps' Martin Nash on April 25 in Vancouver.

After tonight's match in Cleveland, the Timbers and City Stars don't meet again until the end of the season. The Timbers play host to the City Stars in back-to-back games at PGE Park on Sept. 13 and Sept. 17 - both matches will be televised on FSN.

Portland returns home for its next match as it faces former midfielder Andrew Gregor and the Rochester Rhinos on Thursday, May 14 at PGE Park. Portland's match against Rochester will be broadcast live on Fox Soccer Channel as part of the USL First Division Game of the Week series.

TIMBERS GAME NOTES

- * For. George Josten earned his first start of the season May 2 against Carolina and earned his first assist with the Timbers.
- * For. Mandjou Keita paces the team and ranks among league leaders with nine shots.
- * For. Antou Jallow made his Timbers debut in the team's last match against the RailHawks. He entered the match as a sub in the 89th minute.
- * Midfielder Tom Poltl needs just six more appearances to reach 100 games played for the Timbers.
- * Defender David Hayes is on pace to play in his 250th-career USL First Division regular-season match this season. He currently sits at 237 games played in this 11-year career.

ABOUT CLEVELAND CITY STARS

After a series of successful seasons in the USL Second Division, capturing the league title in 2008, the Cleveland City Stars were promoted to the USL First Division in 2009. The City Stars are one of two USL First Division expansion clubs, along with the Austin Aztex, entering the league in 2009.

Tonight, the City Stars finish a two-game homestand tonight as they play host to the Portland Timbers - the former club of head coach Rod Underwood. Underwood was an assistant coach for the Timbers for the past two seasons under current Timbers head coach Gavin Wilkinson. He was a part of the coaching staff that led the Timbers to a USL First Division semifinals appearance in 2007.

Cleveland has opened their first season in the USL First Division with three straight losses. In their last match, the City Stars were dealt a 3-0 loss by the Rochester Rhinos in the team's home opener on May 1. Cleveland started the season with consecutive road matches against the Miami FC Blues and Aztex.

Through their first three games of the season, Cleveland has allowed a league-high nine goals. Forward Ricardo Pierre-Louis remains the team's only goal scorer, finding the back of the net in the team's season opener against Miami on April 18. The City Stars have been held scoreless in their last two matches.

In time for tonight's match, the City Stars announced Friday the additions of forward Leo Gibson from the Minnesota Thunder and midfielder John Michael Hayden on loan from Major League Soccer's Houston Dynamo. Both have been cleared to play tonight.

Following tonight's match, the City Stars return to the road to take on the Minnesota Thunder on Saturday, May 16 at the National Sports Center.

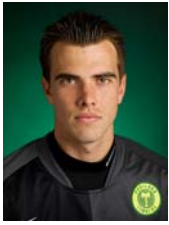

CITY STAR PLAYER NOTES:

- * Mid. Arsene Oka was a member of the Portland Timbers in 2008. He played 225 minutes over seven matches last season in Portland; he has not played a minute yet this season for Cleveland.
- * Mid. Pato Aguilera has registered the team's lone assist.
- * Pato and defender Troy Roberts, who played for the Los Angeles Galaxy last season, have played every minute for the City Stars so far this season.
